二、學生意見與主任回覆意見：

Student A: Since the option 2 is cheaper, once it is rolled out afterwards, would it affect the other funding support for GHP students, such as thesis research, traveling cost or field trip?

Director Lin: The tuition fee income would be actually used to maintain the program, which includes the salary of the staff and the necessary cost for our engagement in CEPH system. As for potential scholarship, traveling cost, or any benefits, most of them depend on the external funding support, such as donation of funding. But as you can see, if we choose the option 2 and the revenue of the program is decreased, the resources are available after considering the running cost of the program.

Student B: Speaking of resources, if we become part of the International College, would it be possible for students to be able to take more classes? If possible, it means that the cost would be lower and benefit the program.

Director Lin: Actually, we are in a dialogue with the International College. For now, we would try to negotiate the most suitable option for our program no matter in courses or resources.

Student C: I am wondering who we are aiming for GHP, is the US student or students from other countries since we are Global Health Program? If Taiwanese students apply for GHP, would they pay tuition fee in a lower price?

Director Lin: Since MoE recognized GHP as the international program, we are not allowed to enroll Taiwanese students for the time being. We will keep trying to persuade MoE of letting us to enroll Taiwanese students. Regarding the prospective students' background, since we are global health program, diversity is one of the main goals we pursue. We still hope our students coming from different countries in different regions.

Student D: Would the tuition adjustment and extension of duration of study affect the current students or be applicable to new cohorts only?

Director Lin: For Master program in NTU, the duration of study could be 1-4 years. The issue here is funding. For GHP, we could only support students' scholarship for 3 semester per current standard of tuition. If we could decrease the tuition, we might be able to support students' scholarship for 4 semesters.

Student E: For PhD program, after the first two years, how much does the tuition fee demand?

Director Lin: For most MS and PhD students, after the first two years of study, the tuition fee would be much lower. Students only need to pay the basic tuition fee about 31,180 NTD per semester (about 1,000 USD).
